Introduction: Your 2017-2018 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) reflected an unusual enrollment history with regard to you receipt of Federal Pell Grant funds. Some students with an unusual enrollment history have legitimate reasons for enrollment at multiple institutions. However, such an enrollment history requires the Office of Financial Aid to review your circumstances to determine whether there were valid reasons for your unusual enrollment pattern.

Instructions: Please provide unofficial transcripts (if you haven't already submitted these to the Registrar's Office) and a statement below explaining why you were enrolled at multiple schools over the last three years and include legitimate reason(s) as to why you failed to obtain credit at each of the schools where you received Federal Financial Aid. Attach additional sheets if needed.

School #1 Name: _____

Reason for leaving School #1

School #2 Name: _____

Reason for leaving School #2

School #3 Name: _____

You must include documentation that substantiates your statement above along with two forms of third-party documentation that support your reason for failing to receive academic credit at any or all schools where you received financial aid over the past (3) award years. Examples of third party documentation may include a letter from a medical professional, pastor, medical bills, letter from attorney, etc.

Student Certification: I certify that all of the information above and all documentation provided are true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I also agree to provide additional documentation, if required, to resolve my unusual enrollment history. Furthermore, I affirm that I have not knowingly or intentionally provided any false or fraudulent documentation.
