FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Statement regarding Stephanie June Jass:

Adrian College wishes to sincerely thank the Michigan State Police, specifically its Cyber Command Center, and the Lenawee County Prosecutor's Office for their thorough investigation and for ultimately bringing charges and a conviction in this crime. Privacy rights are a fundamental principle of our American democracy and Adrian College stands with those who protect these rights.

The arrest and conviction follows months of forensic examination by the State Police, the Prosecutor's Office and College staff time into prosecuting the crime that Ms. Jass perpetrated. Adrian College is pleased to be able bring this matter to a close.
